

Emergency Manager's Weekly Report Paris Terrorist Attacks Situation Report #1 (Nov 13)

Highlights:

- The exact number of injuries and fatalities is not yet known.
- France has declared a State of Emergency. It takes effect immediately throughout the metropolitan territory and Corsica.
- The French government has issued a decree that allows the arrest of any person whose activity is dangerous, the temporary closure of theaters and meeting rooms, the surrender of weapons and the ability to carry out administrative searches.
- Furthermore, the President of the Republic decided the immediate restoration of border controls. The customs services are also mobilized for this purpose.
- Schools, colleges and schools and universities will be closed this Saturday in Ile-de-France and school trips canceled.
- The President of the Republic will remain in Paris and will not participate in G20.
- The City of Paris has reported that tomorrow (Saturday, Nov 14) all of the city's facilities (schools, museums, libraries, gyms, pools, food markets) will be closed.
- The Paris Police recommended the following actions for residents:
 - Residents are to avoid the areas of attacks until further notice.
 - Businesses in the affected areas are encouraged to assist those people in need of assistance or sheltering.
 - Demonstrations or events already in progress are suspended until further notice.
- Using the hashtag #PorteOuverte, which means "open door," Parisians are offering their homes as shelter to those who need a safe place to sleep. Due to the attacks, certain subway lines have been disrupted meaning some people may not be able to get home.
- The U.S. Embassy in Paris advises official U.S. personnel and citizens to shelter in place.
- The U.S. Embassy in Paris is making every effort to account for U.S. citizens in the city. U.S. Citizens can contact 1-888-407-4747 (from the United States) or 202-501-4443 (from overseas) for assistance.
- The U.S. Department of Homeland Security and the Federal Bureau of Investigation are closely monitoring events in Paris and are in contact with their counterparts in the region. At this time, we know of no specific or credible threats of an attack on the U.S. homeland of the type that occurred in Paris tonight.

Sources:

- US State Department Consular Affairs Facebook Page
- French Council of Ministers Press Release
- Statement by U.S. Secretary Jeh C. Johnson on the Situation in Paris
- US Embassy, Paris Press Release
- Paris Police Twitter Feed
- Parisians open their doors to strangers with hashtag

This report is provided for free to all interested organizations and individuals by the Emergency Manager's Weekly Report. To find out more about us please visit our website.

Resources:

Préfecture de police (Paris): <http://www.prefecturedepolice.interieur.gouv.fr/English>

- Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/prefecturedepolice>
- Twitter: <https://twitter.com/prefpolice>

France Civil Protection: <http://www.protection-civile.org/>

- Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Protectioncivilefrancaise>
- Twitter: <https://twitter.com/ProtecCivile>

NATO SECRETARY GENERAL CONDEMNS TERRORIST ATTACKS IN PARIS
http://www.nato.int/cps/en/natohq/news_124623.htm

UN condemns 'despicable' terrorist attacks in Paris
<http://www.un.org/apps/news/story.asp?NewsID=52557#.VkaWSeQo7aI>

NY Times, Attacks in Paris: What Happened at Each Location
<http://www.nytimes.com/interactive/2015/11/13/world/europe/paris-shooting-attacks.html?smid=fb-nytimes&smtyp=cur&r=0>